NIHIL OBSTAT Trani, September

24, 1997

Il Cancelliere Arcivescovile Mons.

Giuseppe Asciano

From the Postulation of the Cause of Beatification of

Luisa Piccarreta

Fiat!

This little booklet will be for you, fortunate soul, a Light of guidance and strength, which will accompany you each day of the year. It contains brief reflections taken from the Letters of the Servant of God, Luisa Piccarreta, who died in odor of sanctity on March 4, 1947 in Corato (Bari), Italy, and whose Cause of Beatification is currently in process.

These thoughts are the fruits of her intimate life, lived in the fullness of the Divine Will, from which she drew Light in order to give Light to all of those who turned to her to receive guidance and strength on their journey of life. Though brief, these reflections are filled with Divine Wisdom, and are capable of transforming your day into Love for God and your brothers and sisters.

Open your heart to pure faith - to the Divine Fiat that wants to transform your actions in the Light of the Divine Will; and to your Guardian Angel, who will gather the fruit of your daily reflection, to offer it to God as the homage of your "Yes" to His Most Holy Will. With the protection of the Most Holy Virgin Mary, I wish Divine richness and safe guidance for your soul, on the journey toward the high mountain of the Divine Fiat. Luisa will lead you by the hand - do not fear!

January

January 1

These are my wishes for the new year - that you may live always in the Divine Volition, and that Jesus may make of you a missionary of the Divine Will.

January 2

We have an omnipotent Will with us; therefore there is nothing to fear.

January 3

I pray to Jesus that He may give you strength, and put Himself in the place of your heart, so as to heal the pain and provide for everything.

January 4

In the Divine Will you will find true peace, and you will give it to others; more so, since by doing the Divine Will, a sweet blood will descend into your veins, which will put to flight all troubles of soul and body.

January 5

As many pains as you suffer, as many tears as you shed, so many are the Angels around you, gathering, full handed, the pearls which you form with your sufferings, and bringing them to Jesus as pledges of your love.

January 6

With all my heart I pray and will pray for you. And you, be good - dignified. Always pray to Jesus that He may assist you.

January 7

Be sure that I will not forget you.

Never be disturbed; these are storms that go by.

January 8

Think that Jesus continually says to you: "My child, forget about everything, and remember only that your Jesus wants love in order to give you love. "

January 9

He wants to make of you a saint, but wants your will in His hands in order to make of it a prodigy of sanctity.

January 10

Lean on Him, and you will see that all things - pains, crosses, miseries, weaknesses, the very defects, and illness will lose their look and will all turn into messengers and bearers of sanctity.

January 11

If you sin and are not holy, do you want to know the cause? Lack of union with Jesus.

January 12

Don't think about the past, this harms you a great deal; rather, even today, begin your life with Jesus.

January 13

I want you peaceful. Peace will be the flag which goes ahead, in order to prevent evil and do the good you desire."

January 14

The Celestial Mama is preparing a chain of graces for you, and will keep her blue mantle laid upon your person in order to protect you and guard you.

January 15

But do you want to know why you feel the weight of your miseries? Because many times you do not try to be together with Jesus and to convince yourself that He is already with you, and you do not unite the pains of Jesus with yours.

January 16

Before the pains of Jesus, yours lose hardness, empty themselves of their weight, become small, and almost smile.

January 17

In the pains you suffer, in the prayers you say, in the work, in the food, in the sleep, say to Him from the heart:

"Jesus, I want to do always your Will. "

January 18

Let us adore the judgments of God, just and holy, Who disposes everything for our good and to make us holy.

January 19

Your pains, your crosses, even though heavy, will serve the Divine Beggar, Who looks for our sufferings in order to form and continue His life within us.

January 20

All you have to say and do is this:
"The Heart of Jesus wants me a saint: I must become a saint!" Have we understood each other?

January 21

Jesus too was mocked in His pains, but it was then that He triumphed; and by means of pains, He conquered our souls. Don't you want to be like Him? You must know that your pains are written in the pains of Jesus, as triumph of His Love toward you.

January 22

Be sure that beloved Jesus will be jealous that you don't lack what is necessary, and even the storms will calm down.

January 23

Look at all things as bearers of a Will so holy, and you will see that the Fiat will defend you.

January 24

Don't get discouraged, do not fear, do not lose peace, abandon yourself more than ever in the arms of the Divine Will, and be tranquil, waiting in full confidence for the helps and means which are necessary to you.

January 25

Sufferings form the carriage which brings us to Heaven, and the more the sufferings, the faster it will go.

January 26

Each additional pain is a faster ride which takes us soon and straight to Heaven.

January 27

Courage, courage. All other things are left; while sufferings are brought to Heaven, and form our most beautiful throne and never ending glory.

January 28

My child, everything is in a strong, firm, constant resolution to deliver our will into the hands of Jesus, so that His Will may underlie each one of our acts.

January 29

In all our being, in the most natural acts of life - in food, in sleep, in sufferings, in prayer, and also in legitimate pleasures, the Divine Will must have Its royal place.

January 30

If the will is good, the heart is good; if the will is holy, the heart is holy. If our will gives place to the Divine, letting It raise Its throne in our will, the heart acquires the divine qualities by grace.

January 31

Look for the Divine Will in everything, and your being will become continuous prayer, in everything.

February

February 1

It is not the words that form prayer, but our union with the Divine Will.

February 2

I recommend that you never leave prayer. Have great confidence in God.

February 3

As we decide to always do His Will and to live in It, sweet Jesus covers all our past miseries in order to let us begin the new life, all holy, and all of Heaven.

February 4

In the secret of our heart, Jesus says to us: "My daughter, if you do what I want, I will take on the commitment of all your things. I can do them better than you - do not worry about anything; let Me do and you'll see. "

February 5

The Divine Fiat is that which must embrace us, enclose us within Itself, in such a way as to consume us completely in the Divine Will.

February 6

To live in order to be consumed in love is the most beautiful act.

February 7

All you should care about is to do the Divine Will, and to know It in every circumstance of your life.

February 8

We should never get discouraged or lose peace, when we are not answered immediately.

February 9

When there is prayer, the hour of the Lord will come and He will give us more than we ask for.

February 10

Peace, trust, courage, resignation and prayer, and the Lord won't be missing to you. All that the Lord allows for you is nothing but means to become a saint.

February 11

Learn a little bit to be alone with Jesus, and He will be with you.

February 12

I wish you the peace of the Fiat, that It may make the full day arise in you - always serene.

February 13

Peace can be called daylight of God, in which the Divine Volition forms Its day of ever growing sanctity, and ever new graces.

February 14

One single act we do in the Divine Will is so great as to surpass the greatness of Heaven and earth.

February 15

Let us do the greater part, that is, the Divine Will - and everything else will come by itself; or rather. .. more than we ourselves, Our Lord will take care of it.

February 16

The Celestial Mama comes to visit you and to be your Mother, Teacher and Consoler; and also to give you Her sweet company in order to teach you how to live from the Divine Will.

February 17

My brother, courage, trust, for you have a Celestial Mama who loves you very much, and who will never leave you.

February 18

If you do the Divine Will ... oh, how It will change your bitterness! You will feel a true divine strength that will ease your painful state.

February 19

If there is peace, there is God; and peace is the sign that the Divine Will reigns as life, or at least as virtue.

February 20

My child, remove the sadness from your soul; do not get discouraged or disturbed; hold peace as the greatest treasure.

February 21

Mortifications, adversities and sorrows are the messengers that Jesus sends to us, His little warning letters, the unexpected telegrams, which bring us the good news of how much Jesus loves us.

February 22

Without the cross it would be as if we had no correspondence with our beloved Jesus, and as if He had made no design upon us... Ah, no, may Heaven save us from this misfortune!

February 23

I recommend to you peace, courage and true resignation, and you will see what the Lord will make of you.

February 24

Do not stop reading the book of The Queen of Heaven, in order to better learn how to live in the Divine Volition.

February 25

Courage, trust and abandonment in the arms of our adorable Jesus.

February 26

There are tears of the heart - the tears of the soul, which are more bitter and transform us into our beloved Jesus.

February 27

Let us be attentive - let us live as if we had no other life, no other word, but the Divine Will.

February 28

May Heaven, dear Jesus and our Queen and Mother reward you for everything; even more, in exchange I will pray that they may give you the royal garment of the Divine Will.

March

March 1

Don't lose heart because of the difficulties and the circumstances of life; they are steps which make us go higher in the Divine Volition.

March 2

Especially in painful circumstances, dear Jesus takes us by the hand to make us rise higher and achieve beautiful conquests - not human, but divine.

March 3

Oh, how I'd love to hear that you are always in the Divine Will!

March 4

How beautiful it is to live in the Divine Volition! Everything is ours; God Himself feels the need to give Himself at the mercy of His creatures, to love them and to be loved by them.

March 5

Put everything with filial abandonment into the hands of God and of the Queen - They, who love us so much and want to be loved.

March 6

Crosses make us be reborn to a new life of sanctity and of Grace.

March 7

Let us make everything flow in the Holy Will, if we want It to perform Its prodigies of love in our soul.

March 8

God Himself faces up to all our things and puts His Sanctity, His Love, all His Being at our disposal, as long as He receives the contentment of seeing us live in that Volition which is the bearer of all His goods.

March 9

As far as weaknesses, miseries and the like, as long as our will is not there, don't worry, since that is our ruin.

March 10

I recommend that you do not think of miseries and weaknesses. The more one thinks about them, the more he feels them.

March 11

Try as much as you can to make the Divine Will known to everyone; in this way you will obtain the grace to know It more yourselves.

March 11

Oh, how good is Jesus! If we knew Him, we would die enraptured with love.

March 12

Only the doubt that Jesus does not love us very much saddens Jesus and embitters Him.

March 13

The cause, I believe, of everything you tell me, is lack of union with Jesus in all your things. The enemy finds you alone, without Jesus, and does his own crafting in you, disturbs you, and takes peace away from your heart.

March 14

Remain always with Jesus, both in spiritual and in material things, and Jesus will take care of giving you peace.

March 15

Everything you suffer, and even your coldness, give it to Him in order to relieve Him and repair Him.

March 16

Jesus wants harmony and concord among you, and He will be in your midst.

March 17

Jesus alone can comfort us in our sufferings. Therefore, let us turn to Him alone; let us throw ourselves into His arms like tender babies; and if pain makes us cry, let us wet His paternal hands with our tears.

March 18

Fears, doubts, agitation, are laces which bind us to ourselves, and take the freshness of love away from us; even more, they make it wither and snatch us from the arms of Jesus.

March 19

My daughter, until you strip yourself of everything, even of holy tastes, Jesus, the kidnapper of hearts, will not give you His divine tastes.

March 20

Be on guard for everything which is not peace, because fears and restlessness, even under the aspect of good, are always infernal breaths and rags of hell.

March 21

If you love Jesus, be at peace; whatever the circumstances may be, never get disturbed, and remain in full trust like a baby in the arms of Jesus.

March 22

Let us learn from this exile how one must live in Heaven!

March 23

Do not afflict yourself with what you feel in the depth of your soul; these are works that Jesus does in order to accomplish His great designs.

March 24

Never lose peace in these circumstances, because the storm will be over - everything ends down here - but peace does not end; rather, it is the carriage which brings us to Heaven.

March 25

Do not neglect anything, give example of a firm character, be always the same with yourself. Don't let the devil laugh, because if your are not firm and always the same, the enemy will say to you: "You wanted to do good to others, and you were unable to do it to yourself."

March 26

So does Our Lord, Divine Architect: He strikes the iron of our soul in order to remove the rust, to soften us and give us the shape of the object He wants to make of us.

March 27

Peace is the smile of the soul, and the spring which makes the little ground of our soul bloom; it removes from us the veil of disturbance and reveals to us the One Who loves us so much.

March 28

Despondency exhausts courage and strength, and renders us unable to do good.

March 29

Don't you feel in your heart the presence of a powerful hand that guides you?

March 30

Abandon yourself in the Divine Volition like a little baby, and you will feel a new strength, a new light arise.

April

April 1

In order to do some good, it takes someone who feels the life of that good. If this life is not felt, it will be done in a forced way and even badly.

April 2

Be sure, my daughter, Jesus loves you and wants you good and holy. Do not listen to the enemy, who would want to snatch the gift from the hands of Jesus.

April 3

Do not pay attention to doubts or anything which is not peace.

April 4

I send you my wishes of a good Easter: let the Divine Will

April 5

The most beautiful wish I can send you is that your will may rise again in the Divine Will, so that you may take your place of honor in the whole order of Creation, where God wants us to be.

April 6

My wish is that our will may rise again in His; in this way, you will give work to Jesus.

April 7

If the enemy torments you, determined, say to him: "These are things that don't belong to me. I don't want to steal from anyone, not even from hell."

April 8

Unshakable firmness in good.
Interest yourself in nothing but Jesus.

April 9

Not wanting to obey means not wanting to do the Will of God!

April 10

As far as the future, don't worry about it either, because it is not ours, but belongs to God.

April 11

Draw everything from sweet Jesus, and He will be generous to you. Don't get distressed about anything; do not fear, because Jesus will take care of everything.

April 12

The Divine Will will be the true Sun for you, which will make the night of troubles disappear, forming the smiling spring of the most beautiful flowers.

April 13

The Divine Fiat awaits you, to say to you: "Give me life in your acts and I will make you a saint. And everything will turn into happiness. "

April 14

What a magic force, what powerful magnet does the Divine Will possess! In the hardest pains It knows how to give rest, placing Its balm on the most embittered wounds.

April 15

I can tell you nothing but this: may the Divine Will cover you and hide you within Itself, but so much so as to feel nothing but Will of God within you.

April 16

The origin of our existence was formed in the center of the Supreme

Fiat.

April 17

17. God created our human will as His divine room, as a secret office, in which He was to live together with us.

April 18

Disturbance is not food for Jesus. Peace forms the day, and converts everything we do into love.

April 19

Do you want to know how to grow in the PIAT? By calling it in everything you do, whether natural or spiritual.

April 20

Say to dear Jesus with all your heart that you want to live in His Will, that you want to know nothing but His Will alone.

April 21

Let us be attentive! Let us not give this sorrow to our dear Jesus - to live without the life of the Supreme Fiat.

April 22

There is no greater love I could have for you, but to wish to see you enclosed in the Divine Will.

April 23

Everything you have done, both for yourself and for others, is seeds that you have formed - seeds which make the Life of the Divine Will be born again.

April 24

Nothing is lost for us if we really want to live from the Divine Will. This Life exists within us, it did not escape; however, one must not abandon it, but make it grow and nourish it.

April 25

The Will of God is ours - and Life of ours. God gave it to us, as principle of life, in the act of creating us, when He brought us to the light.

April 26

It seems to me that dear Jesus surrounds you with these pains in order to give you strength, and with tender and loving voice, He says to you: "My child, give these pains to Me, that they may form my arms, my heart, my steps - my whole Life, to be able to live within you. "

April 27

We must be convinced - not the great things make us saints, but the little ones, which we have in our power and which serve as the nourishment of sanctity.

April 28

If we only knew how many miracles and prodigies are enclosed in the Life of the Divine Will, we would give our lives to receive so many goods.

April 29

Let us pray and look for our place in the Divine Will. Let us make of our will the secret cell in which Jesus speaks to us and reveals to us His secrets, but in which He also reveals to us His pains.

April 30

Oh, how I wish you would occupy yourself with nothing but living of Divine Will, to let sweet Jesus live always together with you.

May

If you want to be a saint, live always with Jesus. He takes on the commitment to make of you His faithful copy.

May 1

I do nothing but pray that the Divine Will may give you the greatest grace - of enclosing you in His Will, in which you will find everything you need to make yourself a great saint.

May 2

Love will make everything easy for you; more so, since you will no longer do anything by yourself, but always with a Will so Holy, which can do everything.

May 3

There is nothing left for us in life but to close our ears to everything, if we want to be at peace even in the midst of the greatest storms.

May 4

There is nothing more beautiful than the sanctity that, in everything, looks at the Divine Will.

May 5

Therefore, let us be attentive; let us not leave the Divine Will, which is for us the bearer of all goods.

May 6

I recommend that you sow the seed of the Divine Will in the souls as principle of Life.

May 7

In whatever state you feel, be always tranquil - do not think of cold or warm. The Divine Will is more than everything: more than prayer, more than recollection, more than fervor, more than miracles - more than everything.

May 8

Let us remain always united in the Divine Will.

May 9

What I recommend is that you look at your crosses as many visits from Jesus, Who brings you the life of the Divine Will, to make It reign in you and to give you all His love as food.

May 10

If you do the Will of God, you will feel a strength in all your sufferings; you will feel an invisible hand which helps you, guides you, and does whatever you do within you.

May 11

When one does the Will of God, the work is more of God than ours.

May 12

Live in It, and you can be sure that you will make yourself a saint. You will feel the bond and the association with the Divine Family.

May 13

If Jesus does not find His Will in us, He does not find the adaptable material to make us saints.

May 14

Every act of Will of God that we do creates His Life in us, and we form the long generation of God in our acts.

May 15

Oh power of the Divine Will - as soon as the soul decides and wants to live in It, the Most Holy Trinity takes Its prime operating place in her.

May 16

Let us hold dear taking refuge in the Divine Will as our life.

May 17

Oh, how I would love to hear you say: "I do not think about whether I am beautiful or bad, or whether I am cold or warm. My thought is to make all my acts and my being flow in the Will of God. "

May 18

Every additional act we do in the Divine Will is a new birth for us. We are reborn in Jesus, and He in us.

May 19

We are under the weight of humiliations, everyone runs away from us, and some regretted having known us. This happened also to Jesus. But may the Divine Will be always done. It alone is faithful.

May 20

I send you my wishes, that you may raise Little Baby Jesus in your soul and live together with Him, watching Him constantly in your interior in order to do whatever He does.

May 21

Jesus needs to repeat His Life upon earth, and He can do so in one who submits himself to anything, and who does His adorable Will.

May 22

Never lose heart; never be disturbed; try to live abandoned in the arms of Jesus, and He will be your Mama, your Father and your custodian.

May 23

I beg you never to go out of His Will. In this way, the Lord will give you His own Love to love Him, His own Sanctity to make yourself a saint, His own Peace in the storms of life.

May 24

What sorrow for our dear Jesus! To have children who do not live with Him, and therefore do not love with His Love, and are not saints of His own Sanctity.

May 25

I recommend to you: never go out of the Divine Will; keep It as your life, nourishment, royal garment and dwelling.

May 26

It is a divine decree that the Divine Will will form Its Kingdom upon earth.

May 27

Let us pray, and let us offer our little pains to obtain the triumph of the Divine Will upon earth.

May 28

As we desire to do His Will, the Sacrosanct Trinity gives us His Love, covers us with His Beauty, gives us His Goodness, that we may feel the divine order.

May 29

Only in His Will are we able to say:
"I have loved Jesus; I have done everything He wants. I have done everything, and I have given Him everything - even Jesus Himself."

May 30

Every time we do an act in His Holy Will, we go to meet the whole of Heaven, and all of Heaven comes to meet us.

June

June 1

Every time we do an act in the Divine Will, the human will goes through a martyrdom - not of blood, but of will, which never dies.

June 2

My good daughter, it is necessary to die to everything in order to rise again to all goods and to true sanctity. But it is so sweet to be able to say:
"Crucified You, O my Jesus crucified I Slandered, despised, abandoned by all, Youslandered, despised and abandoned I So, O Jesus, we look alike."

June 3

In each one of our acts done in the Divine Will, also natural, in the most tiny things, even in one breath, we can form a martyrdom, not human, but divine.

June 4

Let us never move away from His Will, even at the cost of our lives.

June 5

In every circumstance, let us never lose peace, and let us run into the arms of Jesus as our refuge. In this way we will be safe!

June 6

It is enough to say that one single act done in the Divine Will storms Heaven; we make the seas of love of the Queen of Heaven and of the very Divinity our own, and we give them back to God as seas of love which belong to us.

June 7

Do we want to put everything in a safe place - sanctity, and the very life of Jesus within us? Let us do the Divine Will. Let us live in It, more than if It were our own life.

June 8

Oh, how happy we will feel, living of Divine Will!

June 9

Let us not lose our place of honor of living in the Divine Will. Let us content ourselves with dying, rather than not doing the Divine Will.

June 10

Let us not change in the different circumstances of life; many times they serve to make us copy and imitate our dear Jesus.

June 11

In each one of our acts, even natural - because our nature was given to us by God - we will be invested with new beauty, with new love, with new divine strength.

June 12

If we live in the Divine Volition, even our breath, our steps, our motion, run within the breathing, in the steps and in the motion of all, to give back to God love for each breath, prayer for each step, glory for every motion.

June 13

The Divine Will is everywhere and we, by living in It, find ourselves in Heaven and on earth to love Him with all, in all, and in every place.

June 14

The Saints, the Queen of Heaven and God Himself anxiously await the "I love You" of one who lives in His Will, because it is a new gain that they make.

June 15

The "I love You" of the earth resounds in Heaven, in each Blessed, in the seas of the Celestial Mama, and says to all: "I love You, I love You ... "

June 16

May we take to heart living always in the Divine Will; in It we will form seas of love, seas of adoration, seas of glory, to give to our Creator.

June 17

Goodness of God! If only our acts enter the Divine Volition, everything is changed into divine in us, and what is human no longer has life.

June 18

In all circumstances, even painful, you will have a refuge in which to take shelter. Jesus is waiting for you with open arms to receive you and to help you to form within you the noble martyrdom of the Divine Will.

June 19

Let us remain always united in the Divine Will, from which we will draw the strength and the sanctity He wants from us.

June 20

Our most interesting task is to live of Will of God. If we do this, we do everything.

June 21

If we do much without the Divine Will, it is just little drops. Therefore, I placed everything in the Divine Volition, so that It may do whatever It wants. But, be certain that Its Kingdom will come upon earth.

June 22

Let us pray, let us do this Will so Holy and let us live in It. May It be our breath and heartbeat. If we do so, we will be carried in the divine arms; It will lower Itself to breathe in our breathing, to beat in our heartbeat, to move in our motion. Then, in the ardor of our love, we will say to Him: "I love You for all, and for love of You, I give You the heartbeat, the breath, the motion of all. "

June 23

The creature who loves in the Divine Will is not content if she does not find her place in all, to love the One Who so much loves her.

June 24

If we pray, if we adore, and even if we sigh in this Will so holy, we become life of all, and we give God all that everyone should give Him.

June 25

I recommend that you do not lose peace, and that you live so abandoned in the Divine Will as to feel It as your own life.

June 26

In each pain, dear Jesus will give you a kiss, a hug, and will adorn your soul with most refulgent gems.

June 27

Courage, my child; never lose heart; never get discouraged. It is Jesus that wants His child similar to Himself; aren't you happy?

June 28

Dear Jesus will give you His pains as courtship, strength and company.

June 29

What I recommend to you is that the Divine Will be your life, your breath, the beating of your heart, your continuous motion. It is the greatest miracle that the Lord can make for you, and the highest sanctity we can possibly reach.

June 30

Those who today love to live in the Divine Will and to know It, form the seed, the conception, and maybe even the birth of this Divine Volition within their souls.

July

July 1

You must know that the sanctity of living in the Divine Will is nothing other than a birth which the Divine Sanctity makes in the creatures. It is the greatest miracle It can perform in the creatures.

July 2

The Sun never says a word; It allows Its light to be trodden by our steps; It follows us everywhere, and all the glory and honor is of God, who made It Sun. Such is the soul who lives in the Divine Will, whom the Lord uses to do good to all, and from whom He receives glory and honor, as if all had loved Him.

July 3

The Divine Will has such surprises in the soul that the Heavens are astonished and the Angels remain mute in seeing our Creator enclosed in our tiny act.

July 4

In the Divine Will you will feel that it is not you who are speaking, working, walking, loving, but it is Jesus who speaks, works, walks and loves.

July 5

May the Divine Volition reward you by making you know Its Divine Will, because Its life grows in us as we get to know It. A good cannot be possessed if it is not known.

July 6

You must know that in everything we do in order to make the Divine Will known, His Love is so great that He Himself does it within us: it is He who speaks, works, and pushes us. His contentment is so great that He Himself does everything.

July 7

Dear Jesus, in order to give us His likeness, creates pain by the touch of His paternal fingers, and makes the most beautiful pearls, the most refulgent suns, the most expensive diamonds come out from it; and He gives us His most ardent kisses and the tightest hugs.

July 8

Jesus wants to make the Divine Will known to all, so that It may be possessed, because when we possess It, It works the most beautiful wonders and the greatest prodigies in our souls.

July 9

Each thought of yourself is a little escape from the arms of Jesus.

July 10

Patience, my child, dear Jesus wants to make you mature more in sanctity, and His Divine Volition wants to hasten Its life in your soul.

July 11

Disturbances, fears, little mistrusts, are the night of the soul and make her see all things as opposite to what they are.

July 12

The love of Jesus, His sighs and also His tears for desire that His Will reign in us as life, are such that He never leaves us alone; He Himself descends into the depth of our will; He molds it, strengthens it, purifies it, prepares it, and does all that we do together with us.

July 13

What I want - and this is all my interest - is that you keep growing in the Divine Will. Do not pay attention to your little passions - they themselves feel crushed and agonizing, when they have to deal with a resolute soul.

July 14

The mind toward Heaven, the gaze to the Cross, the heart loving Him, the arms always in the act of hugging Him, the steps calling Him, the words saying always "Fiat". In each thing never escape from acquiring a degree of sanctity. Make yourself a saint; Jesus wants it, make Him content.

July 15

Be attentive, my daughter; when dear Jesus wants to give, He asks, in order to prepare the space in which to place His gifts, His light, His graces in our hearts.

July 16

Resignation is what renders the cross lovable, beautiful and precious. Resignation empties the cross and renders it light, making a sweet blood descend into our veins, which sweetens its bitterness.

July 17

When our wills are fused with Jesus, the cross is no longer a cross, but a precious treasure, a divine gain, and the coin for Heaven!

July 18

Do not fear - when the Fiat takes on the commitment, no one can resist it.

July 19

To live of Will of God means to love God with His own Love; and since the Divine Will is everywhere, we love Him for all and in all.

July 20

What the Divine Will does in one who lives in It is unspeakable, incomprehensible, and so amazing as to astonish Heaven and earth; even the Angels remain speechless.

July 21

And here is the Holy Divine Will coming before me and saying: "My Will never ends; I have always some to give. Therefore, send her, as wish, my Love which rises continuously, my sanctity which is ever new, my virtue which is always working."

July 22

Here is my little wish: your will at the mercy of the Divine Will. In this way you will feel within you the Sanctity, the love and the works of the Supreme Fiat as your own. Your life will no longer be of the earth, but of Heaven.

July 23

This is the only happiness of Jesus:

that the soul live in His Will, because He can give her whatever He wants, and can make of her one of the greatest portents of sanctity.

July 24

Oh, how I wish you would occupy yourself with nothing but living of Divine Will, to let sweet Jesus live always together with you. Never lose sight of Him, my child; never leave Him alone in your heart.

July 25

All we should care about is to bring with us the Will of God, which is not a house made of stone, but of Light

July 26

If you want to be safe, live in the Divine Will, and It will know how to defend you from everything and from everyone, in whatever place you are.

July 27

My child, I recommend to you - remain always in the Divine Will. It will take to heart all of our troubles; It will keep us on Its paternal knees, clinging to Its womb of Light, to be our defense, help, refuge and the balm in our sufferings.

July 28

Every additional act we do - may it be even little and natural - increases in us new divine likeness, new love, new sanctity, new beauty. On the other hand, every act - may it be even a great one - which does not have the Life of the Divine Will as foundation, takes us away from His likeness, reduces love, fades Its beauty, closes Heaven to all goods, and forms the sorrow of God.

July 29

By living in the Divine Will, our destiny is secured. We will have the strength of God in our power.

July 30

If God receives, He gives. He rewards even one thought of ours, one sigh, one movement done to fulfill His Will. And He says: "The creature has sighed to do my Will; I must pay her." And do you want to know what pay He gives us? An imperturbable peace, a strength which is such as to be able to bear anything.

July 31

To feel pleasures, imperfections, weaknesses, is not evil. Wanting them is ugly, because the Lord does not care about what we feel, but about what we want.

August

August 1

Our own nature is formed with many little acts - the breath, the heartbeat, the motion; yet, they form our life. And if we lacked even one breath, our life - we could say - is ended. So we can say if our little acts are not animated by the Will of God.

August 2

I beg you to live always in the Divine Will. I pray that Jesus will seal It in your mind, on your lips, in your heartbeat, in the movements of your hands, and even in your breath.

August 3

Jesus loves us so much as to endow us with His Love, His Sanctity, His Light and perennial peace, and He declares us His legitimate children.

August 4

If we do the Divine Will, It carries us in Its arms. He Himself descends in all our acts to place in them His Sanctity, His Love, His Strength, His Light, and He becomes our refuge and our life. So, there is nothing we should fear.

August 5

I recommend that you never move away from the Divine Will. Live always in Its maternal arms, like a baby in the arms of his mother.

August 6

How happy you will feel, thinking that your sufferings serve to save souls, to console Jesus, to kiss His wounds, to tell Him that you love Him! In every pain you suffer, tell Jesus to bring you His Love. Love Him always, and Jesus will be wounded by your love and will love you more.

August 7

May the Divine Will be your dwelling, your food, your life.

August 8

Pluck up courage, and if you want to become a saint and to please Jesus more, enclose yourself in the Holy Will of God; hold It as more than your own life. May It be your continuous food, your refuge, your help, your strength.

August 9

Unite your pains together with those of Jesus, that they may be missionaries throughout the world, just like the pains of Jesus, and you too will feel happy.

August 10

I can only pray that dear Jesus will make you live of Divine Will, because It alone can make us happy, and can make us saints of His own sanctity.

August 11

Jesus wants to display His love, but our will is small and He doesn't know where to put it. He wants to give us surprising graces, but our will is incapable of receiving them. This is why He wants to find in us His Holy Will - not only to give us what He wants, but to make of us His faithful images.

August 12

Let us take to heart living in the Divine Will. It will keep us sheltered, protected from all dangers and free from all evils.

August 13

Pluck up courage, dear Jesus will not leave you alone. It is sufferings that wound His Heart and draw Him with an irresistible force to be together with the creature, to give her the merit of His own pains, and to adorn her with divine marks.

August 14

I recommend to you - let Jesus find you in His Most Holy Will, and He will make a prodigy of your soul. And the more you feel alone, the more you will feel close to Jesus.

August 15

I promise to enclose you in the Holy Will of God, that your acts may be animated by Divine Sanctity, by His infinite Love and by His incomparable

Light and Beauty.

August 16

May the Divine Will be everything for us. May It be our refuge, our life, our All.

August 17

I am sorry for your painful state, but you must know that the Divine Will has Its plans and works to do. So, if you think that the Divine Will is working you, your tears and anguish will cease.

August 18

Abandon yourself to the Divine Will. Let Its Divine Life rise again in all your sufferings.

August 19

This is exactly what the Divine Will can do: give Itself completely, in order to vaunt forming Its Life in the creature.

August 20

I recommend to you - let us always do the Divine Will. It will put to flight all passions; It will clothe us with royal garments of light. We will be the terror of demons, and will give God the new joys which the Divine Will can give.

August 21

Oh, how Jesus longs for it, and reaches the point of crying for the desire that we know the Holy Divine Will, and that It reign and dominate in the whole world.

August 22

Poor Jesus, how much He suffers! And how He sighs and cries because the creatures do not pray Him, do not press Him to concede them the gift of living in the Will of God.

August 23

The seas of the Divine Will are not yet known. If they were known, all would dive into the sea of the Divine Volition to live perennial life in It.

August 24

I beg you to never put aside the Divine Will. Let It be your life, your breath and heartbeat.

August 25

If you want to make yourself a saint, if you want peace and to give peace to all, if you want a divine power to invest you and transform you into Jesus Himself - I beg you to think of nothing else but to live in the Divine Will.

August 26

What I recommend to you is to never leave the Will of God. Never look at the one who commands you if you want to possess peace and let the Divine Will reign in your soul.

August 27

Oh, how I'd love to find you always in the sea of the Divine Will! Every tiniest act of yours would cover you with Its sanctity, with Its love, with Its peace, and you would feel as though repatriated into the Celestial Fatherland.

August 28

I recommend that you stay away from people who can do harm to your soul, because they can poison you.

August 29

Make yourself a saint, and sweet Jesus, together with His Mother, will take care of making you content.

August 30

May the Lord give you the grace to remain firm in the good you started, because those who begin and persevere will be rewarded.

August 31

It is well known how easily creatures change - today they smile at us, tomorrow they will turn their back on us. We can trust God and our Queen alone, because they really love us, without the shadow of interest. They love us because they want to see us happy and holy.

September

September 1

On the hard path of life, always trust the Celestial Mother, and do always the Divine Will.

September 2

I recommend to you: be good, love Jesus very much, never leave prayer, make yourself a saint. If you do this, you will find the doors opened; you will possess the peace of the children of God.

September 3

First form your life as filled with goodness, patience and perfect resignation, because true resignation keeps Heaven open for us.

September 4

We are temples of God. And with God in our hearts, what can we lack?

September 5

Do not be in a hurry - everything is written in Heaven. It will happen when God wants. Do not be concerned about the necessary means; the Lord abounds with those who love Him. Rather, you should fear more not being good.

September 6

I recommend to you - be good; the rest will come by itself. The Lord and the Queen are very rich, and as They give to us, their riches do not decrease. Therefore, be sure that you will lack nothing of the necessary things.

September 7

Remove that which disturbs you. Be at peace, expecting everything from your Celestial Mama, and abandoning yourself in the Divine Will.

September 8

Love your Celestial Mama very much, and she will take care of everything you need.

September 9

Be good, and never leave prayer. Do not trust the creatures, but only

Jesus.

September 10

Trust in the Supreme Will, and you will experience great prodigies.

September 11

Place everything in the hands of God, and He will take care of your destiny. Do not get discouraged; be good. Never leave prayer; it is our refuge, the gate to Heaven, the path and the key which opens the doors of all graces for us.

September 12

The mind toward Heaven, the gaze to the Cross, the heart loving Him, the arms always in the act of hugging Him, the steps calling Him, the words saying always "Fiat".

September 13

Everything you do in the Divine Will will fly to Heaven, to anticipate your possession of It. Therefore, be attentive.

September 14

There is an extreme need for true sanctity, especially in the Priest, and only the Omnipotent "Fiat" of God has this power: to place in us the true order of sanctity with Its creative strength.

September 15

Peace makes us see things as they are before God, and not as creatures see them.

September 16

Peace gives us divine sight, and in circumstances, in humiliations, we see what God sees.

September 17

Each thought of yourself is a void of love that you form; you deny Jesus an act of love, and keep Jesus sighing for your little love. Think about it, and be attentive.

September 18

By doing the Divine Will, the very natural things necessary to our life, are transformed into prayer, adoration and love toward our sweet Jesus.

September 19

Peace is what constitutes happiness of families, not money. How many rich people are unhappy because peace does not reign in their families!

September 20

Three things I recommend to you: firmness in good, perennial peace, filial trust.

September 21

Trust will make you live like a little baby in the arms of his mama.

September 22

Union with Jesus floors all sins, love kills all passions, and abandonment in Him and trust are the nourishment in order to grow in sanctity.

September 23

Here is the means to sin no more: to be united with Jesus, love Him, and always do His Will.

September 24

The breath which the Kingdom of the Divine Fiat produces in the soul, is peace.

September 25

Peace will prepare your soul to live

of Divine Will.

September 26

You say you have many crosses. Good sign, my child. Crosses are divine jealousies and little coins that our Lord gives us.

September 27

Together with Jesus, pains change their look, miseries disappear; and from pains, miseries and weaknesses the most beautiful conquests, celestial riches and the strength of God arise.

September 28

Always keep the Fiat on your lips, in your mind, and in your heart.

September 29

Oh, how happy will you feel, if in every pain you say, "This pain serves Jesus"!

September 30

Patience, trust, courage, is the bread of the strong, the heroism of martyrs. Therefore, courage!

October

October 1

Those who think of the past lose the present.

October 2

It is not that we must no longer

feel our will: to operate on a dead will would be neither ours nor Jesus' victory.

October 3

The Sanctity of living in the Divine Will is for all; or rather, to tell the truth, It is for all those who want It.

October 4

In the Kingdom of the Divine Will no one loses, we are all winners, both God and the creature.

October 5

The Sacred Heart of Jesus is nothing other than the immense Reign of His Will.

October 6

How I would love for everyone to understand this great secret - that, if we want it, we must let the Divine Will reign in us.

October 7

How many graces not obtained, how many obstructed sanctities, how many unhappy people, and with no peace, because the primary food of the Fiat is missing - the life of Jesus is missing within us! Here is all the trouble!

October 8

Sanctity is not formed by playing, but by working, suffering and loving.

October 9

Mortifications, adversities, crosses, come to us veiled and do not let us see the good which they contain.

October 10

Peace removes the veil and allows us to recognize the finger of God in our sufferings.

October 11

Never neglect the Rosary to the Celestial Mother.

October 12

When the Divine Volition wants to reign in the soul, It first sends Its message of peace.

October 13

It is not our occupations that take us away from Him, but our will - the thought of ourselves - that make us put Jesus aside, even in good.

October 14

For one who is with Him, the most indifferent things, works, sacrifices - are prayers, adorations and love; he feels the Tabernacle in his own heart, and Jesus living within himself.

October 15

We are small; if we think of ourselves, Jesus will find no space in which to put Himself.

October 16

Without a cross we are like unripened fruits - like sterile plants, which do more harm than good.

October 17

Jesus feels the need to make of the creatures the repeaters of His Life, and He does so on the stake of suffering and love.

October 18

Sufferings are firewood, and love ignites it, while Jesus gives us the shape He wants.

October 19

Jesus does not look at what we feel, but at what we want.

October 20

Courage and trust; these are the weapons which conquer God. The essential thing is really to begin; the rest will come by itself.

October 21

Love calls for more love. The more we believe He loves us, the more we feel like loving Him; and Jesus, seeing Himself loved, loves us more.

October 22

Prayer will defend us from the shadow of the enemy, and will cover us with the divine shadow.

October 23

Jesus burns with love in the Most

Holy Sacrament and wants to come into our hearts in order to pour out His flames; while if we abstain, He burns more.

October 24

I recommend to you "The Hours of the Passion". Form continuous chains of reparation around Jesus; unite all your actions to them, so that this sweet chain of reparation may never be broken.

October 25

Peace will be your heritage, the Divine Will your life, trust the powerful magnet which will capture blessed Jesus to dwell in your heart.

October 26

With Jesus it takes patience, faithfulness and peace, in order to let Him proceed in the work of forming the Kingdom of the Divine Fiat.

October 27

From the storms you must draw light, courage and peace.

October 28

Never be disturbed, because disturbance is the true hail of the soul, destroyer of the true goods.

October 29

But if you want peace, you must live from the Divine Will.

October 30

Place the Fiat before and after each one of your acts.

October 31

Peace, peace, my child. And you will certainly find peace if you look at the Divine Will in everything.

November

November 1

We must obey and make ourselves saints, not for our interest, but for the glory of God.

November 2

Doubt, fear and agitation do not come from God, but from the devil.

November 3

Never deny anything to the Divine Will. To deny something to It, not letting oneself be dominated by It, means to break the sanctity, to tear it to shreds, in such a way that we ourselves will not be able to make head or tail of anything.

November 4

Love peace and everything will smile at you.

November 5

Let all things be Will of God for you.

November 6

How could anyone live without a Will so holy? It would be as though living without breathing, without motion, without the principle for which we have been created.

November 7

For us, to live in the Divine Will is a sacrosanct duty.

November 8

Whatever one does for God is never lost.

November 9

"Whatever God wants, I want; whatever God does, I do". The Heavens open at these acclamations in order to unite Creator and creature. Continue your mission, and offer it for the triumph of the Divine Will.

November 10

May your life be nothing but a continuous act of the Will of God.

November 11

All other things, as beautiful as they might be, can serve to form His works, but only the Divine Will serves to form His Life.

November 12

May the Divine Will be our only refuge, the balm in our sufferings, the hiding place when they persecute us.

November 13

In everything we can do and suffer, may the triumph of the Divine Will be our only purpose.

November 14

It takes nothing but a firm decision of wanting to live in the Holy Will.

November 15

With the most tiny things, with trifles, we can form the little stones to give the Divine Fiat the material to build our sanctity.

November 16

Our lot changes when we don't do the Divine Will.

November 17

If the Divine Fiat is known, the kingdom of the enemy is over. Here is all his rage.

November 18

Offer your sufferings, and even your little natural acts, to obtain a good so great.

November 19

The thought of ourselves removes the thought of God from us and takes away sanctity, making us grow sickly in good.

November 20

The thing that most facilitates living in the Divine Will, is to do whatever we can - and because God wants it; a Fiat is impressed in our act, and the Divine Life is formed.

November 21

As long as you keep the thought of yourself, even in good, Jesus will not take the reins to lead you and to make of you another Jesus.

November 22

Jesus reigns in peaceful souls.

November 23

What I care about is that we live of Divine Will, because these are all the sighs, the yearnings of Jesus, and maybe even His tears, as He does not see in us the purpose for which He created us: His divine likeness.

November 24

Nothing which is not peace ever comes from God, but always from our enemy.

November 25

Order to become saints, nothing is needed but courage, trust and peace.

November 26

His Most Holy Will circulates in all and gives life to all.

November 27

It is true that the times are sad, and who knows where we will end up, but if we do the Divine Will and live in

It, Jesus will come and take refuge in us, because He will find His own Will offering Him His own Heaven, His worthy dwelling.

November 28

With courage we will challenge everyone, and with trust we will live safely in the Heart and in the arms of our sweet Jesus.

November 29

My child, I recommend that you never move away from the Holy Will of God. Call upon It in every instant, in every pain, in all circumstances.

November 30

Make yourselves saints, but saints

of Divine Will.

December

December 1

As many times as you do the Will of God instead of doing your own, so many times you will be able to say: "I am martyr for You; the martyrdom I offer You is not of blood or of flesh, but with my will united to Yours, I offer You a divine martyrdom. "

December 2

Only the Divine Will is the origin of our life, the means and the end of our existence.

December 3

To love in the Divine Will astonishes Heaven and earth.

December 4

The time will come when Jesus will triumph over all, and His kingdom on earth will certainly come on earth.

December 5

Blessed are those who interest themselves in His Will, because the Lord will use them to open the ways which had been closed.

December 6

The Sanctity of living in the Divine Will is symbolized by the Sun, which does good to all, gives Itself to all, denies itself to no one.

December 7

All the effort of the enemy is to prevent the knowledge of the Divine Will from coming to light, because he would lose his kingdom on earth.

December 8

The first thing that the Divine Will does when It is known is to transform us in good, and to floor our passions.

December 9

Oh, how I wish that all would understand what it means to live in the Divine Will!

December 10

Jesus loves so much one who lives in the Divine Will that He prepares a chain of prodigies, each different from the other, and always new in Sanctity, Beauty and Love, such that He Himself feels enraptured by this creature.

December 11

Divine Will, how admirable and incomprehensible to our little capacity are You!

December 12

How beautiful it is to be able to say: "Jesus is the master of all. May He do whatever He wants - even with my breath, with my heartbeat, and with my whole being!"

December 13

Have no fear - pluck up courage.
Fear is of the vile and of those who do not trust God.

December 14

Let us be attentive, and let us not waste time with things which do not belong to the Divine Will.

December 15

The Lord does not teach difficult things. What He wants is precisely the little things, because they are easier to do, and we cannot find an excuse and say: "I could not do it. "

December 16

When dear Jesus wants to give, He asks, in order to prepare the space in which to place His gifts, His light, His graces in our hearts.

December 17

Every additional act we do in the Divine Will is one more divine likeness that we receive.

December 18

Let us never allow the Divine Will to escape us - both in small and in great things; both in spiritual and in natural things.

December 19

Think that every pain you suffer is an "I love you", a kiss, an affection, a hug that Jesus sends to you.

December 20

May the continuous word on your lips be: "I want to do your Will and live in It!"

December 21

Think that your pains serve Jesus, and that He keeps them in His hands as precious coins with which to save souls.

December 22

There cannot be true peace or true triumph if the Divine Will is not known.

December 23

Our Lord will make the greatest miracles to make His Will reign upon earth.

December 24

Say to all that there is no greater thing, or a more amazing prodigy than to live in the Divine Will.

December 25

In this night of Holy Christmas, let us say, from the heart, a big and repeated "Fiat". My child, dear Jesus wants to make you mature more in sanctity, and His Divine Volition wants to hasten Its life in your soul.

December 26

The Celestial Baby is born; even more - He is born in every instant. In every good act we do, every time we abandon ourselves in His arms, and every time we cry out from the depths of our heart: "Lord, I want to do your Will", the dear Little One repeats His birth.

December 27

I ask dear Baby Jesus that He Himself bring you my sincere wishes. During these days, you will prepare your heart in order to form it as a host in which the Divine Infant will come to be reborn in you.

December 28

Dear Little Jesus will bring you as His wish, His love, His baby tears, His wails, His whole life, and will infuse in you His tender and compassionate love for His pains as a baby.

December 29

I hope that the Celestial Baby, with His childlike smiles, brings you sanctity.

December 30

Dear Little Baby will come all festive, to reward you for the pains you have suffered, and will remain in you to dwell in you forever, bringing you the Divine Will as gift.

December 31

I send you my wishes for the birth of the little King Jesus. He will give you His Most Holy Will as a gift for His birth.
